A Most Harmonious Meeting

The mass convention called to meet at the court house in Forsyth on Satur day. February 26, was well attended by representative republicans from all parts of the county, and the meeting was marked by enthusiasm and get together spirit that presage a good rous: ing Republican majority at the coming election this fall. There was about 150 to 175 men in attendance and everything was as peaceful and barmonious as any convention ever held the National Convention in the person

The Republican county central committee held a short session before the convention was called to order, and elected U. G. Johnson of Forsyth, a member of that body to represent Swan township in place of Jesse Nance, who had removed from the county. Mr. Johnson was also elected Chairman of the central committee to fill the unexpired term of Mr. Nance. This is a deserved tribute to one of strongest Republicans in the county, and while Mr. Johnson was not an active candidate for this place, and repeatedly said that he would not accept it if ten Republican State Convention to be
